

HECTOR

Ceremony and Text for the Order of Hector

PREPARATION:

Scroll/Promissory: None

Token: TBA

Herald: Let [name] come now before Their Majesties.

(The subject shall come and kneel before the King and Queen.)

Herald: The classics tell us that Hector Prince of Troy was known as the tamer of horses. Those who show skill and prowess in the equestrian arts emulate his deeds and are deserved of recognition. Therefore, Their Majesties do admit [name] into the right noble Order of Hector in the Kingdom of Lochac.

(The King and Queen may add any additional words which they have to enlighten the populace as to the virtues of the Awardee and bestow such token as They will.)

King/Queen: have Our leave to depart.

Herald: For [name] newest member of the Order of Hector,

Three cheers, Hip hip! (*3)