Herald: The Kingdom of Lochac is built upon sturdy foundations, strong as granite – the acts of chivalry, courtesy, and service. Many work to build and maintain these foundations, and all that we are and all that we do depend upon them. But there are those amongst us who do more, for in their chivalry, in their courtesy and in their outstanding service to the Kingdom, they allow others to fly. To honour these people, in the 44th year of the Society, the Crown of Lochac created the Order of the Silver Pegasus.

And with that in mind, Their Majesties invite [Name] to join that company.

[Name] approaches and kneels. The Crown may wish to speak here.

Herald: The Pegasus is the emblem of grace and strength upon whose back Bellerophon did great deeds. Your grace and strength of service has likewise allowed the Kingdom to do great things. We therefore admit you to the Order of the Silver Pegasus that all may know how you have caused the Kingdom to soar.
