Crux Australis Montply Letter For May, June & July, A.S. XXX.

Pace 1

Crux Australis Herald - Tancred Enrico di Castrogiovanni.

P.O.Box 367, Alexandria 2015, Phone, 02 557 8468, Work, 02 219 4371, Fax, 02 219 1403.

Unto the College of Heralds of the Kingdom of the West in Lochac, does Tancred Enrico di Castrogiovanni send warmest greetings.

As you have all just read at the top of this page, this is the combined Camel for May, June and July. There have been many problems over the past months and I will outline two of the major ones here.

In June several important tasks were identified by Lord Baryl, Lord Ordonnance and myself that were not being done. This has been rectified and they are now up to date. The other major 'event' was in early July, my Lady and I broke up and she has moved out. The stress of Autocrating Festival and the workload of the Crux office were too much for the relationship. Due to this for several weeks in July I did very little for the College of Heralds.

I am now working hard to catch up on this backlog of work and would like to thank everyone for their patience and understanding in recent months.

Big thank yous to Sir Richard de la Crox and Master Thorfinn Hrolfsson for applying for the position of Lord Bombard. Master Thorfinn was the successful applicant.

The position of Lord Mortar is now vacant (and has been for some time -years?). This position is in charge of field heraldry and the main duty is organising and supervising the field rosters at Coronet events. Other duties will include articles to be written for Camel on topics such as voice projection and name pronunciation. Travel to coronets is not mandatory but an attempt to attend at least two per year would be an advantage.

Applications should reach me by September 30.

I remain your in Service

Tancred.

Fram the Botme of the Baryl

This set of submission represents the sum total of the last three months of submissions, which where cleared out when I had no real response to last months ultimatum, ie comments now or never. As such on the 3 of June the heraldic Clear out was held and all of these submissions processed. Things should now be more efficient.

I apologise to those of you to whom I owe letter of return, I will send them soon. There have only been a few and I have no excuses except every thing else seems to be getting in the way.

I should also be providing Lochac extractions from the Laurel letters and from Vespers Minutes as soon as I get my copies from Mister Boss Tancred. If you think you cheque hasn't been banked you are also correct as due to an argument with the Commonwealth bank and more of Tancred's allergy to mail I still haven't got a bank book but this should be fixed soon!

Your humble servant Baryl

: Catherine d'Arc S.C.A. Name Mundane name : Catherine Harvey

Group : Aneala Money received: $0

This Submission: Name resubmission, Device resubmission

Blazon: Gules, on a bend sinister cotised or, a winged unicorn courant wings addorsed sable, and in dexter chief a pheon or.

Permitted Name Changes: Catherine le Arc. Sound most important, will accept minor changes to the grammar or spelling.

Permitted Device Changes: None. Language: English/French

Documentation: Catherine mundane name. de Arc: "of Arc" photocopy of Muir's Historical Atlas provide, the page number is not clear nor is it mentioned in sources section.

Consulting Herald: David de Saxby

Salient Comments: This name has been corrected from the submitted form of de Arc to d'Arc to provide the correct French grammar. As this is one of the alternates I do not considered it an issue. The Device would be more balanced if it had two pheons. Also winged unicoms are frowned on but I think that they are still legal, so I will let it pass.

S.C.A. Name : Cathleen de Barre Mundane Name : Karen Angel : Aneala Group Money received: $15 This Submission: New Name

Permitted Name Changes: Change Cathleen to Catlin Cateline.

Language: English/French

Documentation: Cathleen - Withycombe p 67. de Barre - Boutlels Heraldry p 79, Reaney. DOBS p 24.

Consulting Herald: Muirghein ni Ghrainne

Salient Comments: The Cathleen is acceptable but only just as Withycombe dates it from the Sixteenth Century. Bar is a province just north of Alsace, Reaney notes a William de Barre to 1199 p24. Even though there seems to be some discrepancy with the dates, Reaney does say this spelling still exists as Barre so the name is quite acceptable.

S.C.A. Name : Dragmel Morgunn the Wanderer

Mundane Name: Craig Jones Group : Politarchopolis

Money received: $30

This Submission: New Name, New Device

Blazon: Or, a chevron purpure between two ducks close and a dragon rampant sable.

Permitted Name Changes: Please correct the grammar

Permitted Device Changes: None

Language: English

Documentation: Dragmel Searle, Onomasticon Anglo-Saxonicum p 169.

Morgunn: Reaney DOBS. p 314. Photocopies provided.

Consulting Herald: Meliora de Curci

Salient Comments: The "the Wanderer" is a little TSCA but then it legal. According to the submitters documentation Reaney the "Morgunn" spelling is Pictish and provides it only as a possible source of the word. It would seem that Morgan would be more likely in connection with an English first name. I do not however have concrete documentation for this and as such it may be correct so I will pass it on to those who can make better judgements. Also note Morgan and Morgan note spelling with virtually every vowel except 'u'. This could suggest two things, one that as we find so many spelling that this one virtually had to exist or that given we have found all these spellings but not the one we are looking for that it just did not exist. Questions more questions but no answers I am afraid, so I leave up to Vesper.

S.C.A. Name : Louisa Reynell Mundane Name : Louise Volk : Politarchopolis Group Money received: $0

This Submission: Device resubmission

Blazon: Or, in chief a fox passant sinister sable and a base masoned sable.

Permitted Device Changes: None.

History: Name registered '93. This ladies last device submission was returned in January 94 by Crux Australis for an extensive list of Mundane conflicts.

Consulting Herald: Dafydd ap Donal ap Gwilyn

Salient Comments: This should be reblazoned to: Per fess sable and or masoned a fox passant resting upon the line of division sable. This is because a base is only the bottom quarter of the shield not half of it.

S.C.A. Name : Marcus Waffenschmied

Mundane Name : Mark Jamieson : Politachopolis Group

Money received: $30

This Submission: New Name, New Device

Blazon: Or, on a rose gules barbed sable a German sallet helm facing to sinister

Permitted Device Changes: None.

Permitted Name Changes: Changes to grammar and spelling to allow it to be registered.

Language: German

Documentation: Waffenschmied - weapon smith - armourer. Cassell's German English Dictionary Karl Breul 1941 (Wow one the same as mine) Marcus -Deutshes Namenlexikon, by H Barlow p 328. Photocopies provided. Consulting Herald: Kate Fletcher

Salient Comments: Markus is the usual form of this name in German but Barlow does note Marcus as existing in period. Sorry I must have forgotten to take the reference before Thorfin the owner of the book left, so we will just have to trust me until someone else can check it out! I am not sure about the word weapon smith being documented out of a WWII English German dictionary but then that's my own personal folly.

S.C.A. Name : Meliora de Curci Mundane Name: Melissa Hicks Group : Politachopolis Money received: $30

This Submission: New Name, New Device

Blazon: Or, a bend gules, over all a wyvern erect vert.

Permitted Device Changes: None

Permitted Name Changes: Correct the Grammar

Language: English

Documentation: Meliora: Withycombe p 217. de Curci: Reaney DOBS p 129

Consulting Herald: The submitter

Salient Comments: In earlier version de Curci is on p98 under Decourcy and it notes a Richard de Curci 1086. Fine. Nice simple device.

S.C.A. Name : Miriam bat Shimeon Mundane Name : Miriam Livnat Group : Stormhold Money received: $30

This Submission: New Name, New Device

Permitted Name Changes: Please correct grammar..

Blazon: Gules on a fess between three candles argent enflamed proper the

Hebrew word CHAI Azure. Language: Hebrew

Documentation: Miriam Withycombe. p 221. bat - daughter of in Hebrew. Shimeon - Withycombe p 270 under Simon. Photocopies provided.

Consulting Herald: Pedair

Salient Comments: Not knowing a great deal about Hebrew I am not really qualified to comment, but it looks great!

S.C.A. Name : Ríoghnach ní Lhaisreán

Mundane Name : Vickie Howard Group : Innilgard Money received: $15

This Submission: New Name Permitted Name Changes: Changes to grammar and spelling to allow it to be registered. Language important.

Language: Gaelic

Documentation: Ríoghnach: O Corraina & Maguire p 158. Lhaisreán: ibid. p

Consulting Herald: Kenhelm de la Dale

Salient Comments: Rigach is the period form of Rioghnach but I do not feel this is sufficient to change it or return it. However ferch in not daughter of in Gaelic but Welsh. As the first and second names are Irish and the submitter has allowed changes I have changed the ferch to ní. This should also aspirate the L forming I think Lhaisreán. I am probably wrong but there's no harm trying.

S.C.A. Name : Yseult de Lacy Mundane Name : Christine Robertson

: Rowany Money received: $0

This Submission: Device resubmission

Blazon: Azure a Griffin or in chief three estoilles within a bordure invected or.

Permitted Device Changes: None.

History: Name registered June '91. This ladies last device submission of Azure a griffin segreant or and in chief three estoilles or. was returned in May 94 by Crux Australis a Mundane conflict with Azure a griffin or Hinrich von Frounenburg. Combined small ordinaries.

Consulting Herald: Dafydd ap Donal ap Gwilyn Salient Comments: Fine no conflicts we could find.

C.A.M.(c)L.

S.C.A. Name: Elizabeth of Malta
This Submission: New Name, New Device

Blazon: Gules, a wreath sable and argent, with in quadrature, four hawks bells or, on a chief or three Maltese crosses sable.

Permitted Name Changes: None.
Permitted Device Changes: None.

Reason for Return: Well the major charge on the device is a jocyelyn sable and argent bells in saltire or. However I have more concerns about the name, as Malta was in fact a Crown Colony of England until 1962 and a State of the commonwealth until 1964, hence Queen Blizabeth II of England was also Queen of Malta, this could be presumption. She would have been in fact Elizabeth of Malta when on Official Business in much the same way she is Elizabeth of Australia when she is here. On this basis I think this should be returned as it is presumptuous of a real person. See Part VI of the RfS which states that Names may not claim status or power the submitter does not possess... and VI.1 Names Claiming Rank - Names containing ..., territorial claims, ... are considered presumptuous. I think such a claim may in fact be being made here however innocently. Also see Part V.5 Specific Relationships - Names that unmistakably imply identity with or close relations to a specific person or literary character will not be registered. Of course the submitter is welcome to Appeal. Merely adding a surname would solve the entire problem.

S.C.A. Name : Eleanor Flambard FitzWilliam of Winson

This submission: New Device

Blazon: Sable and Gules quarterly first and second a cat sejant affronty argent. Permitted Device Changes: None.

Reason for Return: Firstly the blazon should be Quarterly Sable and Gules in bend two cats sejant guardant argent. ie the cats are not affronty. This is then in conflict with Quarterly Azure and Argent in bend two cats sejant dexter forpaws raised argent. (Renate Gabrielle Grossvogel van Ransau S.C.A. 6/88). As there is only one point for the change of field.

S.C.A. Name

: Hrothgar aet Gyting Broc

This Submission : New Name, New Device

Blazon:

Permitted Name Changes: None.

Permitted Device Changes:

Reason for Return: Please provide us with documentation not unsubstantiated assertions. This has been returned due to the lack of documentation for the name. Hrothgar is fine Withycombe p255 Under Roger and Searle p 302 and Broc is OK except as it is in the dative case it should be "Broce" with a '-' over the 'o'. The Gyting is however evading our documentation. The closest that Adrienne Fielding de Faux our resident Old English scholar could find was gyrretynie meaning roaring Bosworth p496. This would give us - Hrothgar aet Gyrrentnie Broce - meaning Hrothgar of Roaring Brook and also worth noting is the concatenation of - aet gytebroce meaning of flowing stream ibid. The return of this name should also allow the redrafting of the device as there are too many ermine spots on the bordure.

1 The "o" should have a "-" over the top.

Language: English.

Documentation: Burly O.E.D. meaning "stately, dignity of noble or imposing presence or appearance" date to 1300. Consulting Herald: Wolfgang von Auerbach.

Salient Comments: We considered this for presumption against Walter Burley Griffin (Oh, do be serious! This is a damn good pun, cant or whatever on the name. Well done .- Æ.S.) the architect who designed Canberra, (Australia's Capital), Canberra has a lake named after him called Lake Burley Griffin. It should be pointed out that the submitting group comes from Canberra. It was stated by many that this could not conflict or be presumptuous because people and award names do not conflict. As I am unsure whether or not this is really acceptable I will pass it on for Vesper to decide.

This is not is fact a conflict as a Kythong ( a male griffin) is a completely different charge to a griffin so this is clear under complete change of major charge.
