

AUGMENTATION OF ARMS

Ceremony and Text for granting an Augmentation of Arms

PREPARATION: Ensure the recipient has registered Arms, and check the blazon.

This is a basic text. If time available before Court allows, personalisation of the introductory spiel to highlight the particular virtues of and services performed by the recipient is strongly recommended.

Scroll/Promissory: None

Token: None

Herald: It is the privilege of the Crown to reward those who serve and support the realm. To those whose efforts are deserving of great renown, it is Their pleasure to grant a rare and special honour, an Augmentation of Arms.

Their Majesties call [Name] forward.

(The subject shall come and kneel before the King and Queen.)

King/Queen: [Such words as They will]

Now, let the proclamation be read.

Herald: [Name] in honour of your service to the Kingdom We do grant you the right to augment your Arms [Blazon] in such fashion as you may properly register with Our heralds, in the Kingdom of Lochac and throughout the Known World. By Our word and hand this [date] day of [month], Anno Societatis [year], [Name] and [Name], Lochac.

King/Queen: You have Our leave to depart.
