

COURT BARONY

Ceremony (and text) for the creation of a Court Baron/Baroness

PREPARATION: The herald shall do the usual pre-ceremony consultation with the Royalty. Usually Barons are created singly or in couples, unless there is some very strong reason to do more at one time. If the recipient does not yet have an Award of Arms, one is given simultaneously. Scroll/Promissory: If the new Court Baron and/or Baroness does not have an Award of Arms, a Scroll or Promissory should be ready.

Token: A coronet, if one is prepared.

Herald: Let (name (and name)) come now before Their Majesties.

(The person(s) called or representatives thereof come forward and kneel before Their Majesties.)

Herald: It is the prerogative of the Crown to honour with the title of Baron(ess), those of Their subjects whose noble attributes have pleased Them.

(The King and Queen take the hands of the recipient between theirs (the right hand of the King and the left hand of the Queen, placing the recipient's hands between theirs. This part MUST be repeated for each person being made a Baron(ess), as it is a form of fealty.)

King: We name you [Baron | Baroness] (first name) , [Baron | Baroness] at the Court of Lochac.

(If a coronet is available, the King (or Queen) places it on the recipient's head, saying:)

CORONET AVAILABLE

King/Queen: Wear this coronet as a symbol of your new estate.

(Then the herald shall read the scroll if the scroll is available, and if not, shall proclaim the following. The scroll texts should be melded together if more than one person is being made Baron.)
