

LOCHAC ORDER OF GRACE

PREPARATION: This is the ceremony used by the King and Queen of Lochac to create a new member of the Lochac Order of Grace.

This is the basic ceremony and it is often personalised.

Scroll/Promissory: None

Token: A favour depicting the badge of the Order. This favour is made by the previous recipient of the award.

NOTE: DO NOT CALL RECIPIENT, YET!

Herald:

In the days of the Principality those who had been exceptional in gracious behaviour were greatly honoured, and this tradition continues in Our Kingdom, as such graciousness is still deserving of great honour

Thus was established the Lochac Order of Grace.

And the sign of the Order is a favour depicting Gules, a hind courant Or between three mullets of six points argent.

And it is given once only in each reign to that person whom the King and Queen find most thoughtful of all (in Their Kingdom), dignified in carriage and gracious in spirit and thought.

Herald:

Therefore do Their Majesties call before them this day (name) to become a Companion of the Lochac Order of Grace.

(The person named comes forward and kneels.)

King/ Queen:

(name), we have found you to be worthy of this honour, and take pleasure in awarding it to you this day. We further charge you to create a new favour to be given to the next member inducted into the Order.

(ad lib from the royalty as to why they have chosen the candidate)

(King and Queen give favour to the recipient.)

Herald:

For (name), the newest Member of the Lochac Order of Grace, Hip, hip! (* 3)
