Herald:

In the days of the Principality. Their Highnesses determined that those fighters in Lochac who made a determined effort to improve their appearance in the field of combat should be suitably rewarded, and in Our Kingdom this tradition continues.

Thus was created the Order of the Silver Helm, that the fighters of Lochac might be inspired to better display themselves upon the field that all may see their glory.

Their Majesties now call (name) to come and kneel before them.

(Those so named, or their representatives, approach and kneel before Their Majesties.)
