

COMPANY OF THE PRIDE OF LOCHAC

Ceremony and text for admitting a household to the Company of the Pride of Lochac.

PREPARATION:

Scroll/Promissory: None

Token: A banner Quarterly azure and argent, a cross gules between four lion's masks counterchanged.

Herald: Their Majesties call [household name] to approach and kneel before Them.

As the various peoples who support and enrich the realm are worthy of honour, so to are those who give of their service severally and together.

Pride is the crown of virtues, for it is impossible to be truly proud without nobility and greatness of character.

Therefore do Their Majesties proclaim [household name] worthy of great honour and admit them to the Company of the Pride of Lochac. In token of which, Their Majesties bestow the right to display a banner Quarterly azure and argent, a cross gules between four lion's masks counterchanged.

King/Queen: (Such words as Their Majesties may desire)

King/Queen: You have our leave to depart.

Herald: For [household name] the newest companions of the Company of the Pride of Lochac, Hip hip! (*3)
