No returns this month so well done!!

Welcome to our new rulers, Konungr Torvaldr and Dotting Amabilia.

As I look over my tenure for the last 2 years, I can reflect on many achievements by the college of Heralds: There have been new awards for the youth of the Kingdom, artisans that provide for the Royal largesse (Order of the Hand and Needle) as well as recognition of the Order of the Mark recipients. The CHAF (Court Herald Award Form) has been updated and modernised. The Book of Ceremonies is updated and will soon be published on the website for all (if not already by this submission) to download. Many thanks to Mistress Gwen verch David and Lady Amanda Martel for their hours of work. I have had the pleasure of promoting several Pursuivants to Herald and to promote Ollivier le Floch to Herald Extraordinaire. The Heralds website is continuing to be updated and has improved greatly.

I must also thank my hard-working deputies: Gwyn Cantor my deputy and now Crux! Glynhyvar of River Haven for the upkeep of the Roll of Arms after taking over from Gwyn. Cristoval Gitano taking over from Uberto as Powderhorn. Leonie de Grey who took over from the amazing and long serving Arabella d'Aubigny as Canon Herald (order of precedence). Amanda Martel taking on Bombarde from Eliana (Ceremonies). Pádraig Lowther as the effervescent chainshot (Education). Rúnfríðr Keiliselgr taking over from Sigrith parði as Rocket (submissions). Ollivier le Floch as Mortar (IT support), who now has a successor in Morris Morse Morley Morecocke.

Without these gentles and the rest of the team of heralds within the Kingdom, my job would have been much harder. Thank you to all whose path I have crossed and who have regaled me with stories and given me ideas regarding pagentry (my passion)!

I wish Gwyn all the best for their tenure and I will continue to support all who request my assistance.
