QUARTERLY REPORTS

An apology to Baron Gereint for listing Innilgard in the groups that had not reported in last months letter. I had received his report before Rowany Festival. It was missed when I went through my pile of incoming mail.

Many quarterly report for the period upto the Rowany Festival are still outstanding, and the next quarter is almost up. I want your reports for the period upto the beginning of July by the next meeting of the College of Heralds on the 5th of July. Your seneschal must get a copy of your report. Canton and College heralds may report directly or through their baronial herald. If you report directly you should send a report to your baronial herald. I have yet to receive reports due at Rowany Festival from Nan Soar Sporiad, East Ridge, Stormhold, Saint Bartholomew, Saint Swithun. I only need one report due at my July meeting.

SUBMISSIONS

River Haven, Barony of; Badge for the Order of the Pierced Anvil > resubmission
Azure, a needle Or, between two flaunches Argent, the whole surmounted by an anvil Or. This is returned for non heraldic style, the surmounting of the flaunches is not correct as flaunches are subordinaries similar to bordures and chiefs, and these do not have charges spilling onto them from the field.

Hugh of Oak; East Ridge > new name and device

Or, a chevron embattled Gules masoned Sable between three armoured arms fesswise each maintaining a sword erect Gules.

Hugh is the submitters mundane name and listed in Withycombe on p157 with a first noted use of 1273. Oak is a common noun. The device is returned for colour on colour as the masoning is Sable on Gules. Also the masoning is in trian aspect. Otherwise the device appears to be clear of conflict.

Kirielle du Papillion; Politikopolis > new name and device

Gules seme of hawk's bells Or, a butterfly Argent between two scarps Or Kirielle has been registered in February AS XX to Kiriel of Windhover Cliff and Kirielle is the female form of the name, the SCA Armorial is very poor documentation. 'du Papillion' is French for 'of the butterfly'. The device appears to be clear of conflict.

I remain My Lords and My Ladies your servant in Lochac

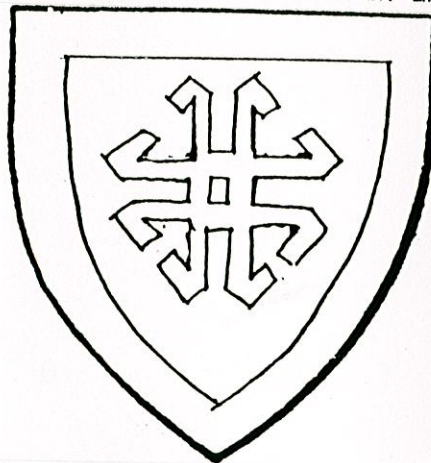

Tako Jiro

Name registered, device resubmission to Kingdom.

Sable, a cross miller parted and fretted and a bordure argent.

This was originally submitted in March XXI as a badge, and was tied to a device which was found to be in conflict. However, it was not submitted to Laurel at that time since he did not want the badge registered without the associated device.

The design is close to the device registered to Gwilym y Fferill o Caer Lleuad: "Sable mulletty, a cross patty sarcelled within and conjoined to an annulet, all within a bordure argent". We feel that the addition of the annulet is worth a point, and that the combination of the mulletty field and the type of cross is worth another. We have asked that Laurel compare the emblazons.

Aislinn de Valence. Badge. Azure, a mascle Or, a bordure argent.

Arianwen de Lynn. Name only (see RETURNS for device).

Charles of the Park. Name only.

Heather of Stormhold. Holding name and device (see RETURNS for name). Argent, a decrescent azure between in fess two heather branches leaved and flowered proper, all within a bordure invected azure.

The name was submitted as Genna Gaireacdaic a Froac.

John of the Hills. Name and device. Or, on a pall purple between three swepes sable, a tower Or, enflamed in chief gules.

Kenneth ap Howell. Blazon correction. Or, a dragon's gamb erased bendwise vert, clutching a torteau.

The tincture of the gamb was omitted when this was accepted in October, 1986.

Llewen the Unruly. Name only.

The given name appears as a variant of Llywen in Early Welsh Geneological Tracts.

Osgot of Corfe. Device. Per chevron argent and barry wavy argent and azure, a pall inverted vert between three ram's heads cabossed gules.

Arianwen de Lynn. Device. Quarterly azure and gules, a hind courant and a bordure argent.

Conflict with Liesel von Blauen Donau ("Azure, a winged stag springing argent, winged, attired and unguled Or, within a bordure argent."). There is only a minor point of difference between the fields and the difference in posture between the deer courant and a deer springing as depicted on Liesel's device was not so pronounced that the cumulative changes to the deer could be considered to equal a clear major and minor point of difference.

Genna Gaireacdaic a Froac. Name only.

Although Genna might be considered a valid orthographic variant of the pre-seventeenth century West Cornish name Jenna (see Names for the Cornish, p. 29), the remainder of the name does not seem to be properly formed Irish for the meaning "laughter of the heath" which the submitter desired. Moreover, this is not the sort of byname that was generally used in the Irish world for actual (rather than epic poetic) use. Since the submitter forbade any changes to the name, the name as a whole had to be returned.
