Crux Australis Monthly Letter for MARCH 1996

Thomas Flamanc of Kelsale
Acting Crux Australis Herald
John Sawyer
Address below

March 15, 1996

Cover Letter

Just a quick reminder that you must send 4 name forms including copies of documentation, 5 coloured device forms and one black and white outline and 4 badge forms, with one black and white. There have been several problems with this recently but I have been nice, soon I will not be.

I now have a drop dead deputy in Gareth Graystone, I have made him Baril not that he will be doing my old job but to use a very nice title. I am also looking for a new Mortar Pursuivant, deputy for Field and Duty Work. The successful must have a good voice, be organised and be able to attend most Coronet events where they are responsible for the duty work for the event and field work for the tourneys. They don't have to do but they must organise people to do it!

Your servant

Thomas Flamanc of Kelsale.

von Ribbeck: Deutsches Namenlexikon Hans Bahlow p417.

It is sustained by the subitter and his consulting heralds that Dutch and German were very interlinked in period and that simply using the dutch locative article is enough to make this a Dutch name. Not knowing a thing about the subject myself I will take them at their word.

This submission was submitted with only one name form, this should have been a cause for return but I was nice this time and I photocopied the name form. Please remember 4 names(including documentation), 5 devices, and 4 badges.

The name s interesting in that [3] states "..., a common name among the Jews, but not used as a chirstian name in England until after the Reformation." Does this mean that the Jews used it in period or that it is common now. All this aside seeing as it appears in the Bible and is meaning 'ewe' is consistant with Jewish naming practises, and that the Reformation is in period, it seems plausible that this is acceptable. The epitet the Untamed seems T.S.C.A. but untamed dates to 1340 in the OED and [2] on p 258 gives examples of un- names, including Unwin meaning unfriendly, Unred(1208-13) meaning taking no counsil, Unnredy(1334) and Unskole c1200 probably meaning without learning or in my opinion without schooling and a few others, it seems that this name would be better as Rachel Untamed but apart from that not as bad as it first looked.

The device whilst devistatingly simple seem clear of conflict.

5. SCA Name: Rainulf de Falconet

Mundane Name: Dr Kenneth Stocks

Group: Inilgard

This Submission : New name.Device resubmission to Principality

DECISION: PASS TO VESPER

Money Received : $0

Blazon : Per fess Dancetty argent and azure a fess dancetty floretty at the points counter changed in base a fleur-de-lys argent

Submission Details:

Ummm I thought that this name had been submitted some time ago but I guess I am embarast to say that it must have been forgotten, in a swap over of office. It got published in CAMEL but it dissapeared without trace. The device was returned for Non Period style having the appearance of one device laid over an other and cut away along the bend sinister. The new device is fine.

The name is documented from The Oxford illustrated history of Medieval Europe p 210 which notes the Norman knight Rainulf. The Falconet is documented from the Columbia-Lippencott Gazetteer as the pre 1630 name for Folkingham but no evidence of this can be found because I cannot look at the Gazetteer as I don't have one and the photocopy does not sustain the arguement.

Consulting Herald: Name: Aislinn de Valence

6. SCA Name: Peter de Gant Noir

Mundane Name: Peter Fryer

Group: Aneala

This Submission : New device change

DECISION: PASS TO VESPER

Money Received : $15

Blazon : Per pale gules and or within a orle of chain Argent an armoured gauntlet affronty sable bearig a cross patty counterchanged

Submission Details:

This gentles current device of Per pale gules and or an armoured gauntlet affronty sable bearig a cross patty counterchanged was registered on the 13 March 1988. This is change simply adds a chain recognition of his knighting on the 4 Novemeber 1990.

7. SCA Name: Gregory of Lochswan

Mundane Name: Greg Turkich

Group: Aneala

This Submission : New device change.
DECISION: PEND AWAITING FUNDS
Money Received : $0

Blazon : Argent a swan displayed and facing sinister sable gorged of a chain or debruised by a fess counter-compony azure and or.

Submission Details:

This gentle knight's device was registered on the 27 September 1992. This simply adds a chain to recognise his recent elevation to the knighthood. Unfortunately he thought that he could get a free device change not a free name change within twelve months as is current West Kingdom policy.

Consulting Herald: Muirghain ni Ghrainne

8. SCA Name: Morwenna AElfaed O'y Glyn

Mundane Name: Rebecca Harris

Group: Aneala

This Submission : New Device

DECISION: PEND AWAIT NAME SUBMISSION

Money Received : $15

Blazon : Sable an urchin argent and a sinister gore ermine.

Submission Details:

This device seems clear of conflict but will have to be pended due to the fact that Vepser returned her name last month. (see excerpts) The blazon submitted was Sable a gore ermine in cheif a headgehog argent was changed because firstly the headgehog is heraldically an urchin and it is the central charge so it is the major charge. The gore is also a sinister one, it should probably be drawn more simetrical but it is OK as is I think.

Consulting Herald: Muirghain ni Ghrainne

9. SCA Name: Muirghain ni Ghrainne

Mundane Name: Naomi Fryer

Group: Aneala

This Submission : New change of device

DECISION: PEND AWAITING FUNDS

Money Received : $0

Blazon : Per pale or and azure issuant from a base engrailed a demi-unicorn rampant to sinister argent gorged with a visconty coronet or.

Submission Details:

This is just an addition of a coronet to her registered device as at 10th September 1989. Unfortunately she also sort to avail herself of a free device change in lew of a free name change, which West Kingdom does not allow.
