Cover Letter

Greetings and I hope that this monthly letter finds you all in fair health. As you will all now notice I am no longer an Acting Crux Australis. I'm a fully fledged one!

I would like to send congratulations to all of those who were recently promoted from cornets to P.E.s. In future I will start to name them in this letter but there are too many to mention here on this occasion. If you feel that you meet the criteria for promotion please do not hesitate to contact me. The criteria is usually that you have demonstrated competence in one of the three fields of heraldry: voice work, court work and book work. Generally three pieces of work in a field and sufficient experience is considered adequate. In the area of book work, a simple test, is also required. For further information please contact your local herald or myself. Please note that you do not have to be a group herald to be rostered as a P.E.

Included in this month's C.A.M.(e)L. are a new set of submission forms along with a new court herald's award form, a office transfer form and a new Free Trumpet West price list. Please take the relevent notice of these documents.

As ever your servant,

Thomas Flamanc of Kelsale
Crux Australis Herald

Submissions

1. SCA Name: Barony of Aneala, Valient Swans of Aneala.

Mundane Name: Perth WA

Group: Aneala

This Submission : New Order Name

DECISION: RETURN

Money Received : $15

Submission Details:

Language: English

It seems my return of this order name in the April Letter was in error so I will reverse my decision and send it on to Vesper. My appologies to Aneala.

2. SCA Name: Gwalchmai ap Llywelyn Llanfyllin

Mundane Name: Ralph Emlyn Morgan

Group: Rowany

This Submission : Resubmission of Name to Kingdom, See Returns for Device

DECISION: Pass Name to Vesper

Money Received : $0

Submission Details:

Language: welsh

This submitters device was initially submitted in December 1994 as Argent a dragon passant gules in chief two viking bird pennants respectant and linked in chief argent and sable.. This was returned for the fact the pennants where not recognised charges by the S.C.A. college of heralds, rather as art work of the period. The name submitted at this time was Rhuddlan ap Gwilym ap Llwelyn o'r Abermaesteg. This was then returned by Vesper as Rhuddlan is a place name not a first name. It was then submitted as Emlyn ap Gwilym ap Llywelyn o'r Abermaesteg, along with the device Sable, on a bend sinister argent, three dragons passant palewise gules. which was returned by Crux for conflict with the arms of Dive, Sable on a bend sinister argent, three ravens regardant sable and an alternate had similar problems. This name was then returned for the presence of the "o'r" (see below) and the fact that the "no changes box" had been ticked. The device of Counter-Ermine on a bend sinister argent three dragons passant palewise gules. submitted with this was then held at Vesper level. He submitted Ralph Emlyn Morgan, his legal name and his English Arms as his device. These were returned, because you cannot submit more than one element of your mundane name, and the device was not compatible with S.C.A. heraldry.

I think the name is finally acceptable. With, Llanfyllin meaning St Myllin's Church, Recorded as Llanvelig in 1254 [6] p 218 and also appears on p25 of [3]. Both Gwalachmai and Llywelyn appear in CA# 66 a Welsh Miscellany and p191 and p201 [1]. This name was submitted as Gwalchmai ap Llywelyn o'r Llanfyllin but the o'r was dropped because it was incorrect, meaning "of the" rather than "of" which is "o' " in Welsh but with actual places the article is removed anyway.

3. SCA Name: Hanbal Al'zaki Wahdi

Mundane Name: Simon Hoad

Group: Stormhold

This Submission : New Name and Device

DECISION: PASS to Vesper

Money Received : $30

Blazon : Per chevron or and azure a ypotryll passant and a palmtree counter changed

Submission Details:

Language: Arabic

My miniscule grasp of arabic means that I am not qualified to comment but the submittor has provided documentation from Arabic Names and Naming Practices by some guy called Da'ud ibn Auda, whoever that is. :-) Showing the name to mean "Hanbal of the pure oasis". He has thankfully ticked the make changes to allow registration box, so I can not see too much of a problem on the horizon, or is that just a mirage.

As an aside, the submitter spoke to an Arabic speaker who stated that it seemed like a good name and even went as far as showing him how to write it in Arabic script. (Crux is glad he didn't try to submit it like this I think even L^AT_EX would have balked or maybe just me trying to type it!).

Whilst the device is a little on the TSCA side it seems free of conflict.

Consulting Herald: Name: Pedair and Porfin

4. SCA Name: Morwenna Ælflæd o'r Glyn

Mundane Name: Rebecca Haris

Group: Aneala

This Submission : Name resubmission to Vesper and Device De-pending by Crux

DECISION: PASS TO VESPER

Money Received : $0

Blazon : Sable a gore ermine a hedgehog argent.

Submission Details:

Language: English

This name was originally submitted as Morwenna o'r Glyn but was returned for conflict by Laurel (Jul 1994) against Morwenna o'Llyn. The next submission in Febuary 1996 was returned by Vesper because it should have been o'r Glyn meaning of the Valley not o'y Glyn and she had ticked the "make no changes" box. This is now fixed. Her device was submitted last month but with her name returned I could send it no further. It still seem clear of conflict.

If you think the return for "o'y" and "o'r" was petty this is the sort of thing that happens if you tick the make no changes box! There is a box that says make grammatical changes to make it correct in the indicated language which, would have made this return unnecessary.

Consulting Herald: Muirghein ni Ghrainne

5. SCA Name: Muirghein ni Ghrainne

Mundane Name: Naomi Fryer

Group: Aneala

This Submission : New change of device

DECISION: PEND AWAITING FUNDS

Money Received : $0

Blazon : Per pale or and azure issuant from a base engrailed a demi-unicorn rampant to sinister argent gorged with a visconty coronet or.

Submission Details:

This is just an addition of a coronet to her registered device as at 10th September 1989. This was pended in March due to lack of funds this is now fixed and seems fine.

6. SCA Name: Piers of Malmesbury

Mundane Name: Peter Chappell

Group: Ynys Fawr

This Submission : Resubmission of Device to Crux

DECISION: Pass to Vesper

Money Received : $0

Blazon : Per pale gules and azure 2 sagittaries passant in pale argent

Submission Details:

The submitters name appeared in the Febuary Vesper Minutes for 1996 but the original device was returned by me for conflict. This submission avoids the conflict and is a fabulous piece of work.

Consulting Herald: Rhodri of Gwynedd

7. SCA Name: Rohesia de Wauretreu

Mundane Name: Rosemary Waghorn

Group: Stormhold

This Submission : New Name and Device

DECISION: PASS NAME AND DEVICE TO VESPER

Money Received : $30

Blazon : Argent masoned sable 3 roses azure barbed seeded slipped and barbed proper and a base sable.

Submission Details:

Language: English

Rohesia is in [7] p258 under Rose dated 1164 and Wauretreu is in [4] p502 under Waverly dated to the Domesday Book.

Whilst complex with five colours and three charges and evoking shameful comments (amongst my Engineering workmates) about wall flowers, the device seems acceptable.

Consulting Herald: Adrienne Fildyng de Faux

8. SCA Name: Tangwystl ferch Iestyn Goch

Mundane Name: Sarah Antil

Group: St Ursula

This Submission : New Name and Device Submission

DECISION: PASS TO VESPER

Money Received : $30

Blazon : Per pale vert and sable, a norse jellingbeast nowed argent

Submission Details:

Language: Welsh

The device, whilst some commentators were concerned about the compatibility of the "twisty" beast, seems to be quite nice.

The name is good. Tangwystl and Iestyn are on p213 and p198 respectively of [1] and also appear in the Welsh Miscellany CA# 66. Gogh seems to be the correct form of the word for red, when applied to a female. This might be a problem as in this case the name means Tangwystl daughter of Iestyn the Red. If this is so it might end up as Tangwystl ferch Iestyn Coch. As she will accept minor changes this should not cause grief.

Consulting Herald: Gui de Bragelonne

9. SCA Name: Wystan of Wallsend

Mundane Name: Kim Strong

Group: Schoëntal

This Submission : New name, See Returns for Device

DECISION: PASS NAME TO VESPER

Money Received : $30

Blazon : Per pale gules and azure a sealion and a sea-horse combattant argent.

Submission Details:

Language: English

Wystan is from the Old English Wigstan and is dated to 1190 p294 [7] Wallsend was submitted as Walls End but was changed to Wallsend because the place Wallsend, (funnily enough near the end of Hadrians Wall) seems to have always been spelt that way. See [4] p43 Wallesende c1085. Before anyone quotes the example of "Land's End" to me, this place name comes from The Land's End ibid p286 "le Londis end". So if this name was "of the Wall's End" then I would have no hesitation using the two words. However "of Wallsend" is much more consistant.

Consulting Herald: Rhodri of Gwynedd.

Mundane Name: Ralph Emlyn Morgan

Group: Rowany

This Submission : Resubmission of device to Kingdom, see acceptances for name.

DECISION: RETURN DEVICE

Money Received : $0

Blazon : Argent a double headed eagle gules collared argent.

Submission Details:

Language: welsh

The device has been returned for conflict with Argent an eagle displayed gules crowned or. which are the "important arms" of Brandenburg. There being no clear visual differences (CVDs) for the number of heads or the collar.

Consulting Herald: None listed

11. SCA Name: Rhiannon Durrand de Cumbria

Mundane Name: Cherie Strong

Group: Schoëntal

This Submission : New name and Device

DECISION: RETURN NAME AND DEVICE

Money Received : $ 30

Blazon : Per pale vert and purpure a lacy knot or.

Submission Details:

Language: Welsh and English

In the Laurel Letter dated Febuary 1 1996 Pelican examined the question of SCA compatible names and deemed them to be a weirdness. Rhiannon is one such name, not being used as far as we know by humans in period but being too popular to ban outright. As the surname is English, not a period spelling (Durand dated 1115 but Durrand not found until after period), and the fact that the locative has been latinised, this name has to be classed as too "weird". ie having more than two "wierdnesses". A much better name would be Rhiannon Cumberland, although it might still be a little too much and it might be better to try Rhiannon Cumbria as a possible latinization of the whole thing. The name would become much easier if the Rhiannon was dropped.

The device is unfortunately in conflict with Purpure a donnelly knot or. Liosliath of Donnelly (SCA April 75).

Consulting Herald: Rhodri of Gwynedd

12. SCA Name: Wulfrich der Hrafn

Mundane Name: Dirk Manfred Schmitt

Group: Hawksreach

This Submission : New Name.

DECISION: RETURN NAME

Money Received : $30

Submission Details:

Language: Old English and Old Norse

This name is documented by the submitter from the Readers Digest Great Encyclopaedic Dictionary 1965, names and native word section. This book after comparison with the trusted sources available to us seems on a par to a baby name book, and should be treated with distrust.

This name has caused us considerable trouble in chasing. Wulfric (pronouced Wulfrich) is common in Searle's Ononmasicon Anglosaxonicum. However there is no evidence of names ending with a "ch". Possibly because this was what was meant by an ending "c". Hrafn is indeed Old Norse for Raven, but the "der" has no place in this name as it is German. The correct epitaph should be just "Hrafn" or possibly "inn Hrafn" but inn seems only to be used before adjectives in my scan of [5] in Old Norse. Better still the name could be put all into Old English with "Hræfen" [2]. As it stands we have a mixture of langauges in the nickname. This is unacceptable and the no changes box has been ticked. If the submitter truely desires the "der", perhaps the name Wolfrich (a combination Porfinn cooked up from "Wolf..." names and the ending "ric" ¹.) would be appropriate.

Consulting Herald: Alarice Beatrix von Thal

13. SCA Name: Wystan of Wallsend

Mundane Name: Kim Strong

Group: Schoëntal

This Submission : New Device, see submission for name.

DECISION: RETURN DEVICE

Money Received : $30

Blazon : Per pale gules and azure a sealion and a sea-horse combattant argent.

Submission Details:

Language: English

The device falls foul of two things. The sword and rapier rule, which is a precedent that states you can't have two different forms of what are essentially the same thing, in this case two sea-monsters, and XI.3 which states that "Armory that appears to marshal independent arms is considered presumptuous". In this case we have two sets of arms marshalled classically in pale.

- I will accept minor changes to the grammar or spelling of my name so that it can be registered.
- Please correct the grammar and/or spelling of my name so that it is correct for the indicated language(s).

The West Kingdom College of Heralds cannot create holding names, and will make no changes to your name, other than those you list. However, if your name is submitted to the Laurel Sovereign of Arms and cannot be registered, a "holding name" may be formed by Laurel in order to register your device and/or badge. This "holding name" will be your official SCA name unless you register another, acceptable name. There is no fee for changing a "holding name".

I will not accept any changes to my name, however minor, not even to form a "holding name", until I have been notified of these changes and have agreed to them in writing. (This means that if any problem is found with your name, even a typo, your name will be returned to you, along with any armory you submitted.)
